

ORDINANCE 2927

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF LYNNWOOD, WASHINGTON, RELATING TO THE CITY'S ANIMAL CONTROL REGULATIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 6.02.020, 6.02.025, 6.02.060, 6.02.070, 6.02.080, 6.02.090, 6.02.110, 6.02.120, 6.02.140, 6.02.150, 6.02.165, 6.02.175, AND 6.02.220 OF THE LYNNWOOD MUNICIPAL CODE; AMENDING SECTION 3.104.010 OF THE LYNNWOOD MUNICIPAL CODE; PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY, FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND FOR SUMMARY PUBLICATION.

WHEREAS, the City is authorized to adopt animal control regulations including but not limited to licensing, impound, enforcement, and other regulatory provisions relating to owning and maintaining animals within the City; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has enacted animal control regulations in Chapter 6.02 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code; and

WHEREAS, currently, the City contracts with the Progressive Animal Welfare Society (PAWS) for the provision of animal shelter and other animal control related services; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that amendments to the City's animal control regulations and fees, as set forth below in this Ordinance, are necessary and would be beneficial to the City; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that it is in the best interests of the City to amend the City's animal control regulations, as stated in this Ordinance; NOW, THEREFORE

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LYNNWOOD DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 6.02.020 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.020 Licensing.

- A. License Required. All dogs, cats and miniature pot-bellied pigs over the age of six months within the city limits must be licensed by the city except:

1. Dogs and cats whose owners are nonresidents temporarily within the city;
2. Dogs and cats brought into the city for the purpose of participating in shows, exhibits, or competitions;
3. Dogs who are specially trained to assist visually impaired, hearing impaired, or otherwise physically disabled persons, if the dog is in training or is actually serving as a guide or service dog as defined in Chapter 70.84 RCW, are required to be licensed; however, they are exempt from licensing fees;
4. Dogs and cats kept and intended for sale by licensed pet stores; and homeless or feral animals.

B. Tags and Fees.

1. Tags. The police department or other animal control agency designated by the city council shall issue animal licenses consisting of a metal tag with a number corresponding to the number of the application to the applicant. The applicant is required to cause the tag to be attached or fixed to the animal. The tag is not transferable.
 2. Fees. The fees for the following, as shown in Chapter 3.104 LMC, shall be fees. The fees for the following, as shown in Chapter 3.104 LMC, shall be paid for licenses required under this chapter: Animal licenses shall be valid for one year from the date of purchase.
 - a. Altered cats and dogs (annual).
 - b. Unaltered cats and dogs (annual)
 - c. Replacement tags (lost).
 - d. Late fees shall be charged on all license renewal applications submitted more than 30 days after the end of the assigned expiration month.
- C. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a civil infraction and shall pay a monetary fine as follows: first offense, $25.00; second offense, $50.00. Any owner who fails to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days. Any person who receives two infractions for violations of this section within one year and who subsequently violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days.

Section 2. Section 6.02.025 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.025 Dangerous animal.

- A. It is unlawful for a person to own a dangerous animal within the city limits unless that person has a current certificate of registration for that animal. The finance director or other animal control authority shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a dangerous animal if the owner presents sufficient evidence of:
1. A proper enclosure to confine the dangerous animal and the posting of the premises with a clearly visible warning that there is a dangerous animal on the premises. Additionally, the owner shall conspicuously display a sign with a warning symbol that informs children of the presence of a dangerous animal. Said sign shall be visible from the right-of-way or from the normal entrance to the owner's property.

2. A surety bond issued by a surety insurer qualified under Chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the animal control authority in the sum of at least $250,000, as provided in Chapter 16.08 RCW, payable to any person injured by the animal;
 3. A policy of liability insurance, such as homeowner's insurance issued by an insurer qualified under RCW Title 48 in the amount of $250,000, with a deductible of no more than $1,000, as provided in Chapter 16.08 RCW, payable to any person injured by the animal, insuring and indemnifying the city of Lynnwood for any personal injuries inflicted by the animal;
 4. Proof of placement and current registration of a microchip that is capable of being scanned by an "AVID" or equivalent brand microchip scanner;
 5. Consent for initial and subsequent inspections of the enclosure in which the animal is and will be kept.
- B. There is an annual registration fee for a dangerous animal as shown in Chapter 3.104 LMC. This fee is in addition to the licensing fee.
- C. No person shall allow a dangerous animal to be outside a proper enclosure unless the animal is restrained under a substantial chain or leash not greater than eight feet in length. The leash shall be in the physical control of a responsible adult person. The animal shall be further restrained by a muzzle or other device that prevents the animal from biting or clawing any person or animal; provided, that no muzzle or device shall be made in a manner that causes injury to the animal or interferes with the animal's vision or breathing. Any animal that is in violation of these provisions shall be immediately impounded.
- D. Any dangerous or potentially dangerous animal, whose owner has been convicted under this chapter, that attacks a person or domestic animal may be immediately impounded, placed in quarantine per LMC 6.02.100 for the proper length of time, and euthanized. The owner may appeal the impoundment and euthanasia under the provisions of LMC 6.02.145. Euthanasia shall be stayed pending resolution of the appeal.
- E. Any animal that aggressively attacks and causes severe injury or death to a person or domestic animal shall be immediately impounded and placed in quarantine, at the animal owner's expense, for a period of 10 days. The animal may be released to the owner; provided, that the owner obtains a certificate of registration as provided for in this section. If the owner fails to obtain a certificate of registration, the animal may be euthanized. The owner may appeal the impoundment and euthanasia under the provisions of LMC 6.02.145. Euthanasia shall be stayed pending resolution of the appeal.
- F. No animal shall be declared a dangerous animal if the threat, injury, or damage was sustained by a person who at the time, provoked the animal, has been reported in the past as having provoked the animal, or was committing or attempting to commit a crime.

- G. This section does not apply to guard dogs or dogs used by law enforcement officials while they are:
 - 1. If guard dogs, protecting property under the conditions of LMC 6.02.050;
 - 2. If used by law enforcement officials, acting in the line of duty
- H. Once declared a dangerous animal, the animal's owner shall comply with the provisions of this section within 30 days, unless an extension for good cause is granted by the animal control authority.
- I. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed one year and/or a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Section 3. Section 6.02.060 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.060 Impound and boarding fees.

The animal control authority shall be entitled to charge the following fees as described in Chapter 3.104 LMC:

- A. Impound fees (domestic animals);
- B. Boarding fees (domestic animals per day);
- C. Per animal fee based upon the cost that the contract shelter charges the City of Lynnwood (domestic animals);
- D. Transport Fee (domestic animals);
- E. Apprehension Fee (domestic animals);
- F. Impound fees (livestock);
- G. Boarding fees (livestock per day);
- H. Impound fees (other animals);
- I. Boarding fees (other animals per day)

The owner of any animal confiscated or impounded under Title 6 LMC shall pay the city assessed penalties and all fees and costs associated with apprehension, transportation, impoundment, care, boarding, and any veterinary costs incurred including euthanasia and disposal if applicable, as a result of the confiscation or impoundment whether or not the animal is redeemed. Relinquishment of the animal by its owner does not constitute a waiver of the fees or costs incurred under this section or fines otherwise imposed. The city may collect the penalties, fees and expenses by use of appropriate legal remedies.

Section 4 Section 6.02.070 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.070 Running at large prohibited.

- A. Running at Large. No domestic or exotic animal or livestock of any kind shall be permitted to run at large during any hours of the day or night. ; ~~provided that~~ This section shall not apply to dogs which are in special areas designated and posted by the chief of police as dog training areas so long as the regulations of the chief of police with respect to the use of such areas are complied with and such dogs are under the custody and control of their trainer.

- B. Found Stray Animals. It shall be the duty of a person who takes into his possession any stray animal found within the city limits, not owned by him or not placed into his possession by the person having the lawful custody and control thereof, to release such animal to a city officer or other animal shelter upon demand and without any charge.
- C. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a civil infraction and shall pay a monetary fine as follows: first offense, $25.00; second offense, $50.00. Any owner who fails to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days. Any person who receives two infractions for violations of this section within 12 months and who subsequently violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed 90 days and a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 5. Section 6.02.080 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.080 Public parks, beaches and/or playgrounds.

Unless otherwise directed by the director of parks and recreation, it is unlawful for any person to ride, lead or otherwise permit any animal to be within or on any public park, beach or playground within the city of Lynnwood, whether owned by, leased or otherwise under the direct supervision of the city; provided, however, the director of parks and recreation is authorized to post a notice or notices of specific areas in any particular public park, beach or playground within the city of Lynnwood where any specific type of animals may be permitted under such circumstances as may be required by the director of parks and recreation. The notices shall be placed in a conspicuous place or places at each drive-in or pedestrian access provided by the city to such public parks, beaches and/or playgrounds. In the event the director of parks and recreation so determines and posts notices as provided in this section, he shall maintain a list of the parks, beaches and/or playgrounds, shall file a copy of the same with the finance director, and the list shall be open and available for public inspection at all business hours of the finance director.

Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a civil infraction and shall pay a monetary fine as follows: first offense, $25.00; second offense, $50.00. Any owner who fails to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days. Any person who receives two infractions for violations of this section within one year and who subsequently violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed 90 days and a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 6. Section 6.02.090 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read follows:

6.02.090 Impound procedures.

- A. Impounding Animals. If a law enforcement officer or animal control officer has probable cause to believe that an owner of an animal has violated this title or Chapter 16.52 RCW, and no responsible person can be found to assume the animal's care, the officer may authorize, with a warrant or a court order, the removal of the animal to a suitable place for care and feeding of the animal. An officer may remove an animal without a warrant only if the animal is in an immediate life-threatening condition, or is in danger of serious harm, or if the animal presents an immediate threat to the safety of others.

- B. Notice of Impounding. When any licensed animal is impounded, the officer or department impounding such animal shall attempt to give notice to the owner the same day either by mail, or by leaving written notice at the address contained in the license application or by telephone. The notice shall inform the owner of the impounding of such animal and the reason for impounding the animal. Neither the city nor its agents or employees are liable for failure to notify an owner of impoundment.
- C. Redemption of Animals by Owner. If, at any time before disposal by the animal control officer, the owner of an impounded animal claims the animal, the owner shall be entitled to possession of the animal only after paying all legal charges and expenses incidental to the impoundment and boarding of the animal. If a domestic animal is impounded and taken to PAWS more than twice during a 12-month period it will be mandatory that a microchip capable of being scanned by an "AVID" or other equivalent brand microchip scanner be implanted in the animal before it is released to the owner. The owner of said animal shall incur all expenses incidental to the microchip process and shall provide written proof of said process to the animal control authority.
- D. Disposition of Impounded Animals. When in the judgment of a licensed veterinarian or the animal control authority's contract shelter that an animal should be euthanized or not returned to the owner for humane or public health reasons, that animal may not be redeemed by its owner. The animal control authority's contract shelter may find a responsible person to adopt the animal not less than 15 days after the animal is impounded. Before an animal is euthanized or adopted out, the animal control authority shall take reasonable steps to serve the owner with notice of the proposed action. Such notice will include the owner's right to appeal the decision in accordance with LMC 6.02.145. The disposition shall be stayed until the appeal process is complete. If the appellate authority decides that the animal should be euthanized, or adopted out, the owner shall be liable for the costs of boarding the animal. The animal control authority shall not be held civilly liable for the euthanasia of the animal.

Section 7. Section 6.02.110 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.110 Confining animals in season

The owner or person having charge of any female animal that is not spayed shall confine such animal in a building or enclosed area during the period such dog is in heat. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a civil infraction and shall pay a monetary fine as follows: first offense, $25.00; second offense, $50.00. Any owner who fails to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days. Any person who receives two infractions for violations of this section within one year and who subsequently violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed 90 days and a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 8. Section 6.02.120 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.120 Muzzling and vaccination.

Whenever it becomes necessary to safeguard the public from the dangers of rabies or other communicable disease, the city council, if it deems it necessary for the public's health and safety, shall pass a resolution ordering every person owning or keeping the infected-type animal to confine it securely on his premises unless such animal has a muzzle of sufficient strength to prevent its biting any person. Any animal not muzzled and running at large during the time of the proclamation shall be seized and impounded. All animals noticeably infected with rabies shall be euthanized by the animal control authority or by any police officer, without notice to the owner. Animals impounded during the first two days of such proclamation shall, if claimed within five days, be released to the owner, unless infected, upon payment of the fees and charges provided for in this chapter. If unclaimed after that period, such animal may be summarily destroyed. The resolution may also provide for and require the vaccination of all dogs with antirabies vaccine, or other appropriate vaccines in the case of animals or diseases.

Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 9. Section 6.02.140 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.140 Nuisance.

- A. Every owner of an animal shall exercise the necessary care and control of their animal to prevent the animal from becoming a public nuisance. Making noise in violation of LMC 10.12.300(B)(8), attacking passersby, chasing vehicles, attacking other domestic animals, depositing excretory material on property other than that of the owner, and damaging property other than that of the owner, shall be deemed a nuisance.
- B. No person shall permit a dangerous or potentially dangerous animal, or an animal which has the propensity to bite or attack humans, to run loose on or within the owner's property in such a manner as to endanger the safety of any person lawfully entering the premises.
- C. Any animal making noise in violation of LMC 10.12.300(B)(8) in the presence of an animal control officer or police officer may be immediately impounded; provided, however, that no animal shall be impounded if it is contained within a house or other structure.
- D. Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a civil infraction and shall pay a monetary fine as follows: first offense, $25.00; second offense, $50.00. Any owner who fails to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 and confinement not to exceed 90 days. Any person who receives infractions from violations of this section within one year and who subsequently violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed 90 days and a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 10. Section 6.02.150 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.150 Horses on arterial streets.

It is unlawful for any person, with the exception of a person in a legally authorized parade, to ride or lead or allow any horse, mare, pony, or related animal on any principal or minor arterials as designated in the existing arterial roadway system as shown in the city of Lynnwood's comprehensive plan as adopted April 10, 1995, and as may hereafter be amended.

Section 11. Section 6.02.165 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.165 Confinement without food and water – Intervention by others.

If any domestic animal is impounded or confined without necessary food and water for more than 36 consecutive hours, any person may, from time to time, as is necessary, enter into and open any pound or place of confinement in which any domestic animal is confined, and supply it with necessary food and water so long as it is confined. The person shall not be liable to action for the entry, and may collect from the animal's owner the reasonable cost of the food and water. The animal shall be subject to attachment for the costs and shall not be exempt from levy and sale upon execution issued upon a judgment. If an investigating officer finds it extremely difficult to supply confined animals with food and water, the officer may impound the animal to the designated city animal shelter and all applicable fees shall be paid by the animal owner before release.

Section 12. Section 6.02.175 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.175 Mistreatment of animals.

- A. Poisoning of animals. It shall be unlawful for any person to willfully or maliciously poison any domestic animal; provided, that this section shall not apply to the killing by poison of such animal in a lawful and humane manner by the owner of the animal or by a duly authorized servant or agent of the owner, or by a person acting pursuant to instructions from a duly constituted public authority.
- B. Cruelty to Animals.
 - 1. A person is guilty of animal cruelty in the second degree if, under circumstances not amounting to first degree animal cruelty as defined in RCW 16.52.205, the person knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence inflicts unnecessary suffering or pain upon an animal.
 - 2. An owner of an animal is guilty of animal cruelty in the second degree if, under circumstances not amounting to first degree animal cruelty as defined in RCW16.52.205, the person knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence:
 - a. Fails to provide the animal with necessary food, water, shelter, rest, sanitation, ventilation, or medical attention, and the animal suffers unnecessary or unjustifiable physical pain as a result of the failure; or
 - b. Abandons the animal. "Abandon" is hereby defined as leaving the animal with no adult care or supervision for an extended period which threatens the animal's welfare, or purposefully discards the animal with an apparent

3. In any prosecution of animal cruelty in the second degree, it shall be an affirmative defense, if established by defendant by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant's failure was due to economic distress beyond the defendant's control.

C. Duty. When Striking an Animal with a Motor Vehicle. Any person who, while operating a motor vehicle, strikes an animal, shall stop at once and render reasonable assistance. The person shall make reasonable attempts to notify the owner of the animal, and shall report the accident to the animal control authority within 24 hours. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this subsection shall in no way be construed to impose financial liability upon the owner of a vehicle for the injury or death of the animal stricken.

Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may, upon conviction, be punished by confinement not to exceed 90 days and/or a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Section 13. Section 6.02.220 of the Lynnwood Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

6.02.220 Non-liability.

Nothing contained in this chapter is intended to be, nor shall be, construed to create or form the basis for any liability on the part of the city or its officers, employees or agents, for any injury or damage resulting from the failure of any person to comply with the terms of this chapter, or by reason or in consequence of any omission in connection with the implementation or enforcement of this chapter on the part of the city by its officers, employees or agents.
