

CITY OF LYNNWOOD

RESOLUTION NO. 76-5

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Lynnwood is concerned about the quality of the educational system within the City; and

WHEREAS, the special levy placed before the voters on March 23, 1976 did fail; and

WHEREAS, the State Legislature has failed to enact the necessary legislation to adequately finance the education of our young people; and

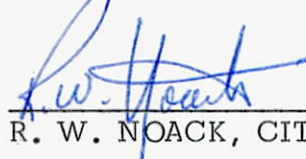

WHEREAS, the Board of Education of Edmonds School District #15 has determined to again place before the electorate the special levy proposition,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Lynnwood does hereby encourage each and every citizen of the City of Lynnwood to become aware of the problems of the School District in financing and to exercise their duty and responsibility by voting at the forthcoming school levy election to be held May 25, 1976.

PASSED this 26th day of April, 1976, and SIGNED IN AUTHENTICATION OF ITS PASSAGE this 26th day of April, 1976.

M. J. HRDLICKA, MAYOR
